Motto: "We Knock to Boost."

Vol. VI. St. Joseph's College, May 13, 1914. No. 16.

Varsity 3—St. Xavier's 2.

Captain Roof's strenuous practice system bore fruit in the third clash of the Varsity men with their South Side brethern. It was the first well fought battle of the season on the local lot for the representative crew. Hard hitting and stellar fielding on both sides made the contest a thriller from start to finish. Maloney yielded but five hits and fanned nine, while Brunswick was touched up for seven bingles, and disposed of ten over the strike out route. Roof and Kihm made timely swats, and Schellinger pulled off some classy work on the defensive. Lackenburger featured for St. Xavier's when he robbed Fitzgerald of a home-run in the fifth.—at least Fitz says he put the home-run label on the pellet. Score:

St. Joseph 2—St. Viator's 3.

May 9.—It took thirteen hard fought rounds for St. Viator's to triumph over the Varsity on the former's home grounds. Worse than that, our hustling warriors led in the scoring up to the ninth. In that frame, with one man down, Butler walked; he stole second as Lawler swung for the third strike, and a minute later scored on Kailey's hit. This run tied up the count which was not broken until the thirteenth. The Varsity started the scoring in the fourth; Kihm singled, pilfered second, advanced to third when Schellinger was safe on an infield ball and scored on a passed ball. In the sixth Deery was safe when Kailey fumbled his grasser; he stole, and Maloney's out advanced him to third. Fitzgerald walked; Deery scored when the two worked a delayed steal. St. Viator's first run came in the seventh. Kearns singled and stole. Mortell fanned, Butler was given free transportation to first, and Lawler fied out to Annen. Kearns stole third, Schellinger dropping the ball. Kailey sent a little Texas leaguer back of short which McGinty and Maloney let fall, and Kearns scored. Maloney replaced Ricks in the box in the tenth, pitching air tight ball up to the thirteenth. Lynch drew a walk, was sacrificed to second and scored on Lawler's timely swat. Though defeated the Varsity gave St. Viator's the toughest battle that any St. Joe team has yet played at Kankakee, and all credit is due to every member of the team. Playing such a class of ball the team should have little trouble in annexing the majority of their games. McGinty's fielding and Kihm's stick work and base running were features. Both Ricks and Maloney twirled well althoug their wildness was fatal; Ricks passing eight and Maloney two. The game in figures:

SENIOR LEAGUE.

May 3. — The Cardinals registered their first victory at the expense of the empty-handed Pirates. V. Kanney twirled a beautiful game, and was seldom in trouble save in the sixth, when two outfield errors filled up the bases. Lynch was not effective in the critical stages.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	R	H	E
Cardinals	2	0	0	0	1	5	0	8	7	3
Pirates	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	2	2	2

Batteries—V. Kanney and Kosior, Lynch and Ossege.

May 9.—The Cardinals and Pirates again faced each other Saturday, the latter returning Sunday's compliment in one of the tightest contests of the season. Lynch bested Kanney in a pitching duel although each pitcher allowed four hits. With two down in the eighth Murphy tripled and Dues followed suit but Kanney stopped the bombardment and only one tally resulted.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Pirates	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	1	x	—3	4	4

May 10 —The flying Giants made it four straight wins and no defeats by trouncing the orphan Phillies. One big inning, the sixth, was enough to put the game on ice for Schall's men Manager Schall performed well in the pitching role Farrell poked out four swats while Pike copped three. Maher had an off day on short, but Coghlan made up for the diminutive's wobbles by several good catches in the field.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E

Phillies	0	0	0	2	1	1	0	3	2	9	9	6

Batteries: Schall, Silverstein & Hellen. Farrell & Annen.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

May 9. — Johnny McGahey's Tigers piled up ten errors in their clash with the Naps, but they also hit the ball, and won 9-7. Tremmel made the circuit in the fifth when his hit got away from Dunn.

Batteries: Ambos & Tremel. O'Meara & Erbach. Two base hits: Hunt, McGahey, Leriger, Ambos. Three base hit: Galvin.

May 10.—The Red Sox and White Sox enjoyed a slugfest Sunday, Gable's men bringing home the bacon by an 8-7 score. Seyfried had the game sewed up until the seventh inning when Foley's errors resulted in runs. Besides, being conspicuous in the field, Foley led the hitting with a clean home-run.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R
Red Sox	1	4	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	2
White Sox	0	1	0	0	0	0	5	1	1	8

Tennis.

The Rennselaer Racket Club won the first of a series of tournaments on the latter's court Saturday, the count being 4-1. Several of St. Joe's best men were preoccupied for the day, else the score margin might be somewhat different. Schall did the neatest work for St. Joe, while Kernick showed speed and skill for Rensselaer. A tournament will be held every Saturday.

Our College Nine.

There is a team in Collegeville,
That has the class to it,
The other teams do feel a chill,
When they begin to hit.

Think of the team they had to play,
St. Viator's splendid nine,
Although we never beat them yet,
We surely will next time.

Oh come what will, O come what may
Our boys are out to win
Oh come what will, O come what may,
They will fight through thick and thin.

Our dear exams are near at hand
And thoughts of home are here,
But let's now be among the band
To give the nine a cheer.

Campus Bores No. 3.

The world hates a knocker but the world must realize that everything that was acquired has been attained by hard and heavy knocks. The "Cheer" staff chose a fitting motto when they "knock to boost." In pursuit of their mission the "Cheer" cannot always rehearse the virtues and praises of campus heroes. There are always two sides to a question: the inside and the outside. Now the praise is due to those on the inside for as their deed comes to the surface they receive their reward; but those who are on the outside in a class by themselves, just like the "skimmins" on a pail of milk, we must appropriately term "campus bores." You can pick out the campus bores by their actions. Many a knocker knocks himself when he knocks another. Make your own choice. Just to help you in your choice we might submit a few prominent characteristics distinguishable in him whom we would call a campus bore. If anybody's conscience bothers him let him wear the shoe and get next to a good corn cure. "We knock to boost"

Among them the following shine very brightly: the man who sits in the grandstand leans his chin on his knees and tells the umpire that he don't know the rules; he who knocks every player that muddle the ball or "pull a bone" Did you ever hear a manager ask an accommodation of a fellow and get the pert reply, "Ah, go get it yourself. that's what you're getting paid for"? Did you ever feel like expressing your opinions when a crowd monopolizes the tennis courts? If you did don't submit them for publication for they are not printable. Did you ever sit down for a peaceful "smoke" when a fellow whom you met under the same conditions the last smoking hour, comes along with a beer-keg pipe bumming the makings and after presenting a fresh can he hands you back the lid of the can? Did you ever get a microscopic view of a dime's worth of candy after you get fifteen feet away from the candy store? How often have you been awakened from pleasant dreams, turned over and wished a heaven of bliss to early risers stalking out of the dormitory in a clog-shoe jig? Keep your eye on the fellow who always wants to cut the butter and pie and take first choice. We don't knock to boost the membership of their society but merely offer a few suggestions to wise campus bores.
